Our Values

Empathy

- INCH will always seek to understand and appropriately respond to the interests of those persons and agencies the association has contact and/or a relationship with.

Accountability

- INCH will be appropriately open and honest in its policy development, practice, communications, reporting and relating with all parties.

Social Justice

- INCH will ensure that its service is fair and accessible to the people who are likely to use it, services are provided equitably on the basis of need, and that all stakeholders (particularly tenants) are provided with opportunities to participate fully in INCH's association.

Co-operation

- INCH will endeavour to be responsive, accessible and consultative with all persons and agencies that we have contact or a relationship with.

Respect

- INCH believes that all people deserve to be treated in a manner that upholds their dignity regardless of background, beliefs, culture, circumstances or past behaviours.

Inclusion

- INCH supports the right of people to be involved in decisions affecting them and to participate fully in the activities of the association, in community life and society.
