

INCH's Board

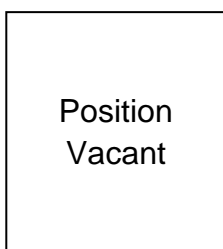

INCH's current Board members have a diverse range of skills and experiences.

Their professional skills include Masters of Business Administration, Masters of Business Accountancy, Masters in Business Law, Masters of Social Work, Masters of Laws and Masters in Risk Management. Degrees in Accountancy, Corporate Governance and Risk Management, Management Organisations for Not-for-Profit, Business, Law, Environmental Planning, Urban and Regional Planning, Legal Practice, Civil Engineering and Commerce.

Along with experience in governance, international change management, management in private and public sector, international accounting, federal government contracts, strategic planning, education, affordable housing modelling, commercial property management, environmental law, community engagement, customer advocacy, organisational resilience, business continuity and crisis management.

Board Executives – Volunteers

President

Lyndall

Treasurer

Association Secretary - paid part-time position

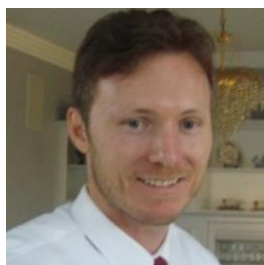

Peter

Board Members

Allison

Ben

Ben

Lisa

Moataz

Reid